“ Bill, my husband, Sam, and myself worked with Bill at the post office for 29 years. I was a clerk, like Bill. We shared many stories about our lives over the years. We also shared a love for our cats. Bill was worried that no one would attend his funeral. He joked about paying people to go. We told him that his friends would always remember and love him. Attending the service might not always be possible. We had a lunch club that met once a month at k&w. It consisted of Charlie Fullwood, Earl Bellamy, Sam Mishoe, Connie Mishoe, and Bill Parker, along with Bill. These were good times. Bill kept a list. He is now part of that list. For me, he is at the top of that list.

Thank you Connie for the kind words of my Uncle Billy. He was quite a character. I remember his telling me too about paying people to attend. He had a great sense of humor. He spoke often of his post office club meetings at K&W. He talked about "the list" and how he knew one day he too would be on it. Yes, he is now on the list I am sad to say. I want all his friends to know that he was taken very good care of him in his last month and I would have not had it any other way. He was such a good man to many people and he loved all animals. Especially, Peanut his furry friend.
