“ Dear Aunt Daphne, Cheryl and Kathy...I'm so sorry Uncle Paul had to go but I know he's having a happy reunion with his brothers and sisters. I loved Uncle Paul and wish I could've visited more these last years. I'll always remember all those times yawl came to the house and we had cake and coffee, boiled peanuts and Pepsi. Those were the good days. Uncle Paul was so funny to me...he'd day “ yawl come, we'll be home if we ain't gone.” Or “ yawl come to the house, we'll open up a keg of nails and let you hello bite the heads off.” I remember him and his little Debbie star crunch snacks..he wanted to eat them after he'd carried it in his pocket and it was smashed flat. Funny the things we remember about someone. I love you all and hope to get down there soon to visit you. Love always, Tammy
