“ As we live this life we encounter so many problems and illness is one of them. And the worse of our problems is Death an enemy of life. Losing a loved one can be devastating, because we have a built-in desire to live and enjoy life with our family and friends. When we lose our loved one, for what ever reasons we may believe, it is distressing, because we miss them very much. At these times, we need encouragement and hope so that we can cope with our lost. For that reason, we can be encouraged by reflecting on the promises that God has given us thru his word the Bible, concerning that hope of seeing our love ones again. I hope that you find comfort in reading these scriptures. John 11:11-44, John 5: 21, 28, 29 and Revelation 21:4. My prayers are with your family.##imported-begin##Karen Cross##imported-end##

“ Charity and Chasity, It was truly sad to here of Ray's passing. It has been many years since we were in touch. Ray and I, I guess you could say, grew up together. I have many wonderful memories of playing together and going to school. He will be truly missed. My prayers will be with you both.##imported-begin##CARMELLA DORMAN DEWBERRY##imported-end##

“ Charity and Chasity, May God keep you close in His palms during this time. Willie is at peace now and playing golf on the BEST course there is. I worked with Willie at Hadwin-White during 1990 and Willie bought some of my power tools when I sold my house. You will be in Mary and my prayers. “ Charity and Chasity: Sorry to hear of Ray's death. He was such a nice person. Although I know that he suffered from a terrible disease, his family also suffered. But just remember he is no longer in pain. I will be thinking of you at this sad time. I used to work with you at the hospital and my daughter Amy went to preschool with Chasity.###imported-begin##Barbara Graham###imported-end##
