

William H. Clark, Jr.

July 16, 1938 - December 24, 2019

William H. Clark, Jr., age 81, passed away peacefully at home, December 24, 2019 with his family by his side.

Born in Batavia, New York, he was the son of the late William H. Clark, Sr. and Frances McGhan Clark. He served with honor in the United States Air Force as a marksmanship instructor and worked for National Fuel for 40 years and the Batavia Downs and Buffalo Raceways for 35 years in New York. He was a faithful member of St. Michaels Catholic Church.

Surviving are his loving wife of 56 years, Margaret (Maggie) Gonzales Clark; 3 daughters: Barbara Ann Oliveira (Guy) of Andover, Massachusetts, Jean Marie Nasello (Carl) of Rochester, NY, Susan Kay Royce (David) of Warsaw, New York and 4 grandchildren: Dylan and Noah Royce and Lucas and Gavin Oliveira.

A Celebration of William's life and committal to the St. Michael Catholic Church columbarium will be announced at a later date.

Memorial contributions may be made to Hope for the Warriors, www.hopeforthewarriors.org, a veterans group committed to enriching the lives of our veteran's.

Goldfinch Funeral Home, Beach Chapel is in charge of the arrangements.

“ Dear Maggie and family,

On December 24th Bill was welcomed by the angels and entered into God's presence. We believers have the promise that we will all be together again in heaven.

Bill was such a kind and gentle man whom we thoroughly enjoyed. You were a wonderfully strong and loving wife to Bill, especially through his long and difficult illness.

Clay and I remain friends to you for life.
