

Winferd Wayne Litton

March 19, 2006

Surfside Beach Winferd Wayne Litton, age 74 of Oceanside Village died Sunday, March 19, 2006 at his home. Born October 22, 1931 in Gay, WV to the late Delmer and Opal Litton. He was also predeceased by a sister, Martha Anderson. Surviving are his loving wife of 51 years, Carolyn and four sons, David, Greg and wife Cheryl all of Murrells Inlet, Phil, Steve and wife Kim all of Surfside Beach. Eight grandchildren, Travis, Tate, Tory, Taylor, Tristen, Ty, Jacob and Noah and one great granddaughter, Cierra. Also surviving is a brother Keith Litton of Parkersburg, WV, several nieces, nephews and cousins. Mr. Litton was honorably discharged from the Air Force in 1954. Before moving to Myrtle Beach, he owned several restaurants including, A&W Root Beer Drive Inns, Dairy Queens and Bowincals. After moving to the area, he was one of the original developers of Oceanside Village before selling. He also owned and operated the Bermuda Dunes Motel before opening the Sundown Restaurant and Sports Pub in Surfside Beach in 1982. Other interest included a Shrimp Farm and Water Parks. A memorial service will be held at Living Faith Church, 4513 Hwy 17 Bypass South in Myrtle Beach on Friday, March 24 at 11:00 AM. In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to the American Cancer Society, 950 48th Ave. North, Myrtle Beach, SC 29577.

“ Dear Carolyn and sons, Please accept my heartfelt sympathy at this time of loss. I wish I could be there with you but I'm sure Mark and/or Kenny will represent the Atkins family. Our two families have shared many of the same paths in our lives; the Litton and Atkins families heading to the beach. Know that those of us left in West Virginia share your loss.##imported-begin##Sandra Atkins Garretson##imported-end##
