“ Wilson, was one of the first persons I met here in 1984. Wilson treated me wonderful. He was my first landlord. I had a barber shop in the ally by Godfathers...I cut Wilsons hair for 34 years...When I retired he would come to my house for 6 years. The last haircut was at his house about 3 weeks ago. He walked down the stairs to say Hi to my wife Cheryl who is wheel chair bound. He treated my family like his own. He would give my handicapped daughter a hug every time he got a haircut. I have tears in my eyes right now, what a wonderful father you to children had.

*I will miss Wilson

“ Wilson Cain was always there for so many people . I will always remember how he took care of my Mom during her fight with cancer and during her end of life care. No matter what medicine was needed, he made sure Mom got it . He will always hold a special place in my heart. Prayers for Brian and Melissa. Susan Lanning Curtis
